We Offer Ourselves Deacons

Song of Gathering Everlasting God - Brown, Riley

Prayer of Confession

We cannot hide from you, Everlasting God, even if we were to go from one edge of creation to the next. You speak to us of compassion, but too often the ways in which we treat others show we have not been listening. We run from you, yet you search for us relentlessly and you find us. Having found us we ask that you remind us of your forgiveness, and that you heal our broken hearts so we may offer them to you and open them to others.

"Seek not to grow in knowledge chiefly for the sake of applause, and to enable you to dispute with others; but seek it for the benefit of your souls."
